

The telephone privacy law should be left as it is now. People of the state of Indiana have a right to enjoy the privacy of their own home without these nuisance calls. My time at home is much more enjoyable now that i am not aggravated all the time with these calls. This law is one thing that makes Indiana a great place to live. Let us have peace at home, leave the law as is!

Carol Hartke